

Naathi Verbal Morphology

Naath...

... known to the ancients as the Isle of Butterflies, is an island in the Summer Sea off the northwestern coast of Sothoryos.

WORLD VIEW WESTEROS & ESSOS

Sample Verbs

sleep: ɔɫɔn

fall: umano

grab: uni

praise: jalɪn

see: ɛrɪni

love: unla

give: ɔmala

go: ɔnɔ

come: ɔnɔn

say: adan

Copula

Nominal and Adjectival Predicates:

The suffix -(i)m marks the subject of a sentence.

jɜnrɪm ini
"The person is a girl."

pʌhɪnim kan
"[The] hair is short."

Pronouns

Me
Her/Him (gender neutral)
Them

tɔ jal
jɜn

I
She/He (gender neutral)
They

tɔm jalɪm jɜnɪm

Agreement

	Singular	Plural
1st Person	tʊm כּוּח "I go"	alʔtʊm כּוּח "We go"
2nd Person	jalim כּוּח "You go"	alʔjalim כּוּח "You go"
3rd Person	ʔnʊm כּוּח "S/he goes"	alʔʔnʊm כּוּח "They go"

The subject is marked with the suffix -(i)m followed by the verb. There is no distinction in verb form based on subject agreement.

Present

	Singular	Plural
1st Person	tɔm sɔjɔnɔ "I am going"	alɔtɔm sɔjɔnɔ "We go"
2nd Person	jalɪm sɔjɔnɔ "You are going"	alɔjalɪm sɔjɔnɔ "You go"
3rd Person	jɔnɪm sɔjɔnɔ "S/he is going"	alɔjɔnɪm sɔjɔnɔ "They're going"

The affix sɔ(j)- stems from the proto word sontari which means "now."
Its modern form is sɔnri.

Past

	Singular	Plural
1st Person	tɔm kajɔnɔ " I went "	alɔtɔm kajɔnɔ " We went "
2nd Person	jalim kajɔnɔ " You went "	alɔjalim kajɔnɔ " You went "
3rd Person	jɔnim kajɔnɔ " S/he went "	alɔjɔnim kajɔnɔ " They went "

The affix ka(i)- stems from the word proto word kantari, which means "yesterday." its modern form is kana.

Future

	Singular	Plural
1st Person	tɔm jɪjɔnɔ "I will go"	alɔtɔm jɪjɔnɔ "We will go"
2nd Person	jalɪm jɪjɔnɔ "You will go"	alɔjalɪm jɪjɔnɔ "You will go"
3rd Person	jɔnɪm jɪjɔnɔ "S/he will go"	alɔjɔnɪm jɪjɔnɔ "They will go"

The affix jɪ(j)- comes from the word jɪrɪn which means "death." This form comes from the fact that the people see death as an inevitable fate for everyone that happens to the very end of their future.

Desire

	Singular	Plural
	տՅմ յոյր "I want to go"	ալՅտՅմ յոյր "We want to go"
Past	տՅմ կայ ոյր "I wanted to go"	ալՅտՅմ կայ ոյր "We wanted to go"

The suffix -(յ)ր comes from the word յրՅսա which means fruit. People only eat fruit, so it directly correlates to the people's constant desire to get rid of hunger and eat!

Obligation

	Singular	Plural
	ተጋጠ ኃጋጋጋጋጋጋ "I must go"	ለጌተጋጠ ኃጋጋጋጋጋጋ "We must go"
Past	ተጋጠ ካጋጋጋጋጋጋ "I had to go"	ለጌተጋጠ ካጋጋጋጋጋጋ "We needed to go"

The suffix -ጋጋጋጋጋጋ comes from the word ፍጋጋጋጋጋጋ which means throne. Thrones and royalty is seen as a state of humility and under constant obligation to the rest of the land.

Dislike

	Singular	Plural
	တၢ်မၤ ဘၣ်ညါသာ "I don't want to go"	အါဒ်တၢ်မၤ ဘၣ်ညါသာ "We don't want to go"
Past	တၢ်မၤ ကါညါသာ "I did not want to go"	အါဒ်တၢ်မၤ ကါညါသာ "We did not want to go"

The suffix -(i)asa comes from the word asant which means snake. As snakes are notoriously known in society to wreak havoc, they are constantly connected to negativity and dislike.

Thank you!